ment of the [REDACTED] The undersigned and his wife STATOTHR attended with his sister and brother-in-law a social function held by the [REDACTED], present at which were a photographer and a reporter. The [REDACTED] article of 16 April 1962 was the result of this party. It was the understanding of the undersigned that this was a purely social affair and would be covered as such for publication.

STATOTHR 2. As a result of the [REDACTED] article of 16 April 1962, the undersigned wishes to advise that he received two telephone calls on 16 April, one from a [REDACTED] STATOTHR [REDACTED] asking the undersigned to call her at [REDACTED] The undersigned has not as of this writing contacted Miss or [REDACTED] STATOTHR

STATOTHR 3. The other was a call from a [REDACTED] STATOTHR asking for an interview. The undersigned told him that he did not want to give an interview at the present time, and [REDACTED] STATOTHR then asked several questions over the phone concerning how long the undersigned had been living here, where he was working, how long he would be here, and so forth. The undersigned informed [REDACTED] that this was in the nature of an interview. [REDACTED] STATOTHR stated that he did not intend it to be one. As a result, it is the undersigned's opinion that [REDACTED] will have an article on the interview.
